

This page belongs to _____

What Do You Remember?

Directions

Circle the best answer to each question.

1. How does the girl treat the horses?
 - a. Very poorly.
 - b. She understands them and takes very good care of them.
 - c. She's really more of a cat person.

2. What happens when the horses gallop to a new place?
 - a. They are scared at first, but then are very happy to live with the stallion and the wild horses.
 - b. They quickly turn around and head for home.
 - c. They decide to gallop to California.

3. Who does the girl meet the next morning?
 - a. Some hunters.
 - b. An antelope king.
 - c. A spotted stallion, leader of the wild horses.

4. How does the girl feel when they bring her back home?
 - a. She is thrilled to be back home.
 - b. She is overwhelmed with happiness because she missed her family so much.
 - c. She is sad as she misses the wild horses.

5. Why are horses so important to the tribe?
 - a. Because they make good companions.
 - b. Because they provide transportation and help the tribe to hunt.
 - c. Because they are a staple of the tribe's diet.

Comprehension

Assessment