

This page belongs to _____

What Do You Remember?

Directions

Circle the best answer to each question.

1. What is the problem in the story?
 - a. There are not enough dolls for all the children.
 - b. Everyone is allergic to bluebonnets.
 - c. There is drought and famine.

2. What does the Shaman say the people must do?
 - a. They must sacrifice their most valuable possession.
 - b. They must do a rain dance.
 - c. They must relocate the tribe.

3. What is She-Who-Is Alone's most valued possession?
 - a. Her pony.
 - b. Her shoes..
 - c. Her doll.

4. Why is the girl called She-Who-Is-Alone?
 - a. Because she had no one to play with.
 - b. Because her family had died in the famine.
 - c. Because there was no one else in the tribe.

5. What is a shaman?
 - a. A spiritual leader.
 - b. A tribal musician.
 - c. A warrior.

Comprehension

